

Queenstown Times

A top international field converged on Coronet Peak this week for the Winter Games giant slalom events. To capture the action Joe Dodgshun took his camera up to the slopes.

Quick off the mark ... Norwegian athletes (from left) Rikke Gasmann-Brott, Chloe Fausa and Ragnhild Mowinckel.

Flying Kiwi ... Adam Barwood, of Queenstown, makes his way down the giant slalom course. He finished 37th overall. Fellow New Zealander Ben Griffin was 17th.

Green blur ... Victoria Bell, of Ireland, gives her all in the first run of the women's giant slalom.

Close shave ... Andreas Zampa, of Slovakia, cuts a fine turn during the giant slalom.

Smiles all round ... Visually impaired athlete Mary Fisher celebrates a challenging run with guide and Remarkables adaptive snowsports coordinator Ross James.

Powder finish ... Douglas Hedin, of Sweden, comes to the end of his first run in the giant slalom.

Valiant effort ... Tim Cafe, of Queenstown.